

Helping Businesses and Communities Succeed

March 11, 2021

Work & Study Hubs Now Open

Work and Study Hubs are available in 13 communities across Prince Edward Island. Individuals can bring their own device to access free, reliable internet to work and learn. No reservation is necessary. The hubs can accommodate six people at a time on a first-come-first-served basis. Check HERE to locate the Work and Study Hub closest to you, including hours of operation.

Community Non-Profits – Two Funding Opportunities

Applications are now open for the 2021 Community Foundation PEI Grants. Find more information about grants available and the application process HERE. Deadline for applications is May 1st.

The Canada Post Community Foundation awards grants to schools, charities and community organizations that make a difference in the lives of children and youth, up to the age of 21. Grants are available for projects that support health, education and community. The 2021 grant application period is closes April 1st at 12:00 pm. Apply HERE.

Festival & Events:

Join Premier Dennis King and Dr. Heather Morrison for a free Q&A session on March 25th designed to assist event organizers as they navigate through this time of uncertainty. Find additional information/registration information HERE.
